"It is claimed by the United States international dealers in meats that all the hue and cry against the edibleness of American meats, and all the charges against the sanitary conditions of American ive cattle sent abroad, are inspired by the land-owning protectionists of Germany and France. They desire, it is said, to make cattle and meat higher in the German and French markets, by making cattle and beef scarcer. The scarcity is brought about by excluding, for alleged sanitary reasons, the American cattle and meat products. It is not claimed, however, by protectionists in Germany, as it is by protectionists in Germany, as it is by protectionists in Germany, as it is by protectionists in the United States, that making scarcer will make them cheaper.

"The herds of cattle and swine, in fact, all the domestic animals of the United States, are in splendid condition. There has not been a case of pleuro-pneumonia in any of the United States. There is no contagious, infectious or communicable disease now prevalent among the domestic animals in any state or territory of the American Union. There has not been, and there will not be, shipped to any European port any animal or the product of any animal which has not been inspected and declared healthy, wholesome and edible. The United States will continue to furnish all meatless Europe with the best and cheapest pork and beef in the world."

MORGAN SENT TO PRISON. Conviction of One of the Aquia Creek

against Morgan. This motion was opposed by Senator Little, one of Morgan's counsel, who insisted that he was ready for trial. The court continued the cases.

The commonwealth then announced that it was ready to try Charles J. Searcey. Searcey was brought into court, and through Mr. R. H. L. Chichester, whom he had requested to act for him, asked for a continuance. No objection being raised his case was continued. Morgan has now been convicted of the crime of robbery on one indictment. There are four others pending against him. The jury in the case of the Aquia creek train robber, Charles Morgan, brought in a verdict of guilty at Stafford Court House, Va., last evening, and sentence was placed

The prosecuting attorney, Mr. W. Sey-mour White, received in twenty minutes after the verdict was known the following telegram from Gov. O'Ferrall: "Congratulations on your splendid prosecution. Train robbers will seek some other state for their nefarious work. Virginia juries will uphold the law."

It was just 4 o'clock when the prosecuting attorney closed his two hours' argument, in winding up the case. It was just 4:10 when the jury came back. The court room was packed.

"Gentlemen of the jury, look upon the prisoner," said Clerk Bryan, "have you tilities, and they were composed largely of men whose homes have been devastated agreed upon your verdict?"

'We have." replied Foreman Jones in

"Is he guilty or not guilty?" "Guilty," said the foreman, and the verdict was handed up.

"We, the jury, find the prisoner, Chas.

"We, the jury, find the prisoner, Chas. Morgan, alias Charles Augustus Morganthal, guilty as charged in the indictment, and fix his term of confinement in the penitentiary at eighteen years," read out the clerk.

The judge then asked Morgan if he had anything to say why sentence should not be pronounced. Half raising himself, he said: "I was not ready for trial. I had no idea I would be tried at this term of the court. I was not physically or mentally in condition to be tried and did not want to be tried in this condition."

"The court sees no reason in that for not passing sentence," said Judge Ashton. "You have had a fair trial. The jury is one of the best that could be gotten in this trial. You have had able counsel. In view of the very strong evidence in the case you are very fortunate in not suffering the extreme penalty of the law. The judgment of the court is that you be taken to the penitentiary of this state and there confined for a period of eighteen years, but the execution of the sentence will be suspended until the 5th day of April next to enable your counsel to apply for an appeal."

Messrs. Shay and Little were not daunted by the verdict, but at once moved for a new trial on the ground that the verdict

WESTERN TRIP EARLY IN THE SEASON

Opening the Yachting Season at Cannes.

TO OPEN AT BOSTON

Games.

GENERAL SPORTING TOPICS

The National League schedule was adopted by the delegates in New York yesterday without discussion, in fact, before they saw it. Washington, contrary to the old-time costom, will not open at home, but at Boston. This is a complete surprise, for no one suspected such an event.

Boston is raising great objections to Washington as an opening card and Washington would rather begin operations with an easier club than Boston.

Baltimore will open the season at home, with Philadelphia as her guest. Brooklyn will be in New York, Cleveland at Cincinnati, Pittsburg at Louisville and Chicago at St. Louis.

The season begins on April 18 for all the clubs except Boston and Washington, which de not play until April 19. Another innovation is that the eastern clubs go west on May 6, before all of them have played the other eastern clubs. They will be gone nearly all of May. The western clubs then come east, and the easterners will be in the west again in July.

Some astonishment was caused by the fact that Brooklyn is to play at home with Boston on Independence day at the same time Baltimore is in New York. Washington will play that day in Philadelphia. committee a bill extending the provisions of the act of June 27, 1890, to the eighteenth and nineteenth regiments of and families murdered by the Indians during their raids on the frontier settlements. The services rendered by them, the committee holds, were of a very exceptional character, and the results of the same have been widespread and beneficent. No dangerous precedent, it believes, will be established by the enactment of the bill into law, as these were the only volunteer organizations which have been mustered into the United States service since the civil war. When the verdict was announced there was great indignation among the base ball men in the hotel, who believed that he should be reinstated upon the same terms that Barnie and Buckenberger received. A subscription was a that Barnie and Buckenberger received. A subscription was at once started to pay Pfeffer's fine. Great excitement reigned and Fred was surrounded by sympathizing friends and admirers.

He himself said that the ignominy of being fined after being suspended was like fining a man after executing him.

"I wanted to be reinstated," said he, "but this kind of a thing would make any sensitive man feel like a dog."

It was expected that Pfeffer would revert to Louisville, but it was thought that Louisville would sell his release to Chicago. He cannot, though, play this year with any other national agreement club than Louisville.

Tim Hurst Turned Down.

Tim Hurst will likely not be a league umpire. No official announcement has been made of the staff, though Mr. Young says he has decided to appoint six out of the seven men. The six are Emslie, Lynch, McQuaid, Betts, Keefe and McDonald. The newspaper men signed a request to-day asking the delegates to give them the reasons for Hursi's removal. They were told that Tim's pugilistic tendencies did not dignify base ball. Hurst has acted as ref-eree in a number of fistic bouts.

Many Deals. A number of deals are on, but hang fire. Philadelphia's offer to trade Weyhing for Gleason and Cincinnati's to give Chamberlain to Baltimore for Gleason are neither very well thought of by Mr. Hanlon. He may consider seriously one of the offers if a cash bonus in Baltimore's favor is added.

There are rumors affoat that both Boston and Philadelphia would like to secure Arthur Clarkson from St. Louis. Irwin and Seelee both say they are not anxious for the great John's brother, but Von der Ahe declares that both of them have approached him in regard to the man.

Buck Ewing has been after Breitenstein, Weyhing and Turner. vision for the repeal of the paragraph of section six of the fortification appropria-tion act of 1888, relative to the purchase of 12-inch breech-loading mortars.

It was with great pleasure that he discovered the fact that on the west shore of the lake a straightaway course could be laid out for one mile and 550 yards, the same distance as the Henley regatta course, same distance as the Henley regatta course, and near enough to shore so that the various markings on the perpendicular cliffs could be plainly seen by the coxswains. The following dimensions were marked off: 300 feet, 500 feet, 600 feet, 550 yards, 2,000 feet, 5,000 feet, one mile, one mile and a quarter, and one mile 550 yards. Courtney, in expressing his views on the course, said: "The coxswains will know where they are now at all times, and the dimensions are marked so plainly that the boats can be timed for any part of the whole course." timed for any part of the whole course.

To Open Tennis Tournaments. As far as can be learned now, there will The Tampa Bay and Magnolia Springs Tennis clubs have both abandoned their fixtures this spring, and the St. Augustine Tennis Club has made no arrange ments as yet for their usual meeting. The Gates City trophy, representing the tropical championship, was wen last year for the third and final time by Oilie Campbell, and third and final time by Oilie Campbell, and no efforts have been made to secure a new challenge cup for competition. It is still possible that a tournament may be arranged at the last moment, but no date has been applied for, and it would be difficult to get many northern players to enter at this late day. Harry Lillywhite, the groundsman of the Saratoga Athletic Association and the Meadow Club of Southampton, is at St. Augustine again this spring in charge of the courts.

Racing at Arlington Ends.

The racing at Arlington, Md., came to rather an abrupt close yesterday, the prin-cipal reason being that Alexander Island track reopens and it was not deemed profit-able to continue this meeting with another only forty miles away.

Preparing for the Season.

At a meeting of the board of governors of the Columbia Athletic Club last evening L. S. Wells, jr., was designated to have charge of foot ball and base ball, R. C. Smead to have charge of tennis, E. M. Harmon fencing; J. H. Hunter, rifle and trap shooting; J. R. Edder, spatring and trap snoot-ing; J. R. Edder, spatring and wrestling; Charles Baker, boating; T. B. Nolan, gym-rasium; S. Y. About twenty new intembers were also ad-mitted by vote of the board and arrange-ments discussed for the indoor charmyonments discussed for the indoor champion ships, which will be held March 27.

Today President Nick Young decided that McGill had been regularly released and he approved his contract with the Phillies. They will also play the Washington club a similar number of games, three in Savan-nah and the remaining three in Charleston,

The Secretary of the Navy has received a telegram from Capt. Cromwell, command ing the Atlanta at Colon, saying briefly that an engagement is expected shortly rear Cucuta, Colombia. The insurrection in the northwestern part of Colombia has been in progress for over a month, and each side has repeatedly claimed victories over the other without any special results being apparent. Navy officials here do not think that the expected engagement is likely to be very important, although the fact of Capt. Cromwell cabling it seems to indicate that it may be rather more serious than usual. The Atlanta will remain at Colon.
